DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1 – 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. For example, it appears from the “Background of the Invention” that the band and panel are one and the same, or at least equivalent. However, that is not the case as described in the “Detailed Description” and as claimed. Furthermore, figures 1-3 do not refer to either “band” or “panel”, but rather “slice”. Is a slice referring to a band or panel? Clarification is sought. The application has not been examined based on its merits.
